

Federation of World Educational Robot

2013 World Educational Robot Contest China Championships Notification

2013 World Educational Robot Contest China Championships is organized by the Federation of World Educational Robot. As robots will play an important role as human being's partners in our future daily lives, WER contest always focuses on theme of future family lives.

WER laboratory, an institution works on rules of the contest, was established in Tsinghua University, to make revision and innovation on the contest rules every year.

Social responsibility of WER

- To cultivate students' creativity and practical ability through robot projects;
- Attempt to resolve real life problems through comprehensive utilization of science, technology, engineering and math, etc.
- Learn to organize and manage a team, work collaboratively.

2013 World Educational Robot Contest China Championships will be held in Liuzhou City, Guangxi Zhuang minority Autonomous Region of China from Nov. 22 to 24. We sincerely invite you to attend the event for contest and exchange with students from China as well as the rest of the world.

Schedule

Date	Time	Content
Nov.22 2013	9:00—18:00	Check-In and Practice
Nov.23-24 2013	9:00—18:00	Contest

Federation of World Educational Robot

For more competition information or inquiry, please visit our official website:

<http://www.WERcontest.org>.

If you have any questions, please send email: robin.dou@wercontest.org

We are looking forward to your presence.

Federation of World Educational Robot

July 2013