

Federation of World Educational Robot

2013 World Educational Robot Contest Notification

World Educational Robot Contest is organized by the Federation of World Educational Robot. AS robots will play an important role as human being's partners in our future daily lives, WER contest always focuses on theme of future family lives.

WER laboratory, an institution works on rules of the contest, was established in Tsinghua University, to make revision and innovation on the contest rules every year.

Social responsibility of WER

- To cultivate students' creativity and practical ability through robot projects;
- Attempt to resolve real life problems through comprehensive utilization of science, technology, engineering and math, etc.
- Learn to organize and manage a team, work collaboratively.

World Educational Robot Contest of 2013 will be held in Luoyang City, Henan Province of China from August 16 to 18. We sincerely invite you to attend the event for contest and exchange with students from China as well as the rest of the world.

Schedule

Date	Time	Content
August 16 2013	9:00—18:00	Check-In and Practice
August 17 2013	9:00—10:00	Opening Ceremony
	10:00—18:00	Contest
August 18 2013	9:00—15:00	Contest
	17:00—18:00	Awards Ceremony

Federation of World Educational Robot

For more competition information or inquiry, please visit our official website:

<http://www.WERcontest.org>.

If you have any questions, please send email: WERcontest@hotmail.com.

We are looking forward to your presence.

March 2013